Alfajores Cookies

makes 12

Ingredients

Cookies

1 ¼ C	gluten-free flour (king arthur, bob's red mill)
1 C	cornstarch
¼ t	kosher salt
1 ½ t	baking powder
1 C	unsalted butter, room temperature
⅔ C	granulated sugar
4	large egg yolks, room temperature
2 t	vanilla extract

Filling

6 oz	dulce de leche
½ C	shredded coconut (sweetened)

Instructions

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Line a baking sheet with parchment paper.

Combine flour, cornstarch, salt and baking powder in a mixing bowl.

In a separate bowl, use an electric mixer to cream butter and sugar, until light and fluffy. Add egg yolks and vanilla extract. Add dry ingredients and mix on low until incorporated. This should resemble a sugar cookie dough.

Using a cookie scoop, place a scoop of cookie dough onto a parchment lined tray, making sure to keep about 1" in between. Gently flatten the cookies to remove the dome shape. Place into the oven and bake for 15-18 minutes, until the edges are golden. The center may be a bit soft when pulling the cookies out of the oven but will set once cooled.

Alfajores Cookies

Once the cookies have cooled completely, using a butter knife or an offset spatula, spread a thin layer of dulce de leche onto one cookie, be sure to spread the dulce de leche all the way to the edges. Place another cookie on top of the filling to form a sandwich. Roll the edges of the completed cookies in coconut flakes and enjoy!

Argentinian Steaks

serves 4-6 adults, 1 steak per person

Ingredients

Steak

1 per person	steak (flank, flat iron, skirt) 5-6 oz pp
3 T	vegetable oil
1 t	kosher salt
1 t	whole black peppercorns, ground

Chimichurri

1 oz	fresh flat leaf/italian parsley, finely chopped
1 sprig	fresh oregano, finely chopped
0.5 oz	fresh cilantro, finely chopped
2	garlic cloves, minced
½	shallot, finely diced
½	lime, juiced
2 T	red wine vinegar
½ C	extra virgin olive oil
pinch	kosher salt
pinch	red pepper flakes

Instructions

Preheat oven to 450 degrees.

Remove steak from refrigerator and bring to room temperature, about 10 minutes.

To make chimichurri, into a bowl whisk together vinegar, lime juice, and olive oil. Add in shallot, garlic, parsley, cilantro and fresh oregano, mix until well combined. Season with salt and red pepper flakes and set aside so the flavors can meld.

Argentinian Steaks

TBK Tip #1: Using an immersion blender or food processors, combine shallot and garlic, pulse until finely chopped. Add the parsley, cilantro and fresh oregano, pulsing until finely chopped. Add the vinegar, lime juice, and then slow drizzle in the olive oil. Season with salt and red pepper flakes and set aside so the flavors can meld.

Once at room temperature, prepare steaks by drizzling oil over steaks and seasoning with salt and pepper. Heat a large sauté pan (not nonstick!) over medium-high heat until very hot but not smoking about 2-3 minutes. If the pan gets too hot and starts to smoke, take it off the heat to cool a bit.

Place the steak in the pan and let it cook undisturbed until a crust forms on the bottom, about 2-6 minutes (depending on the thickness). Flip the steak using tongs and cook for another 2-6 minutes.

Once cooked, let the steak rest for at least 5 minutes before serving so the juices can redistribute. To serve, drizzle the chimichurri over top and enjoy!

TBK Tip #2: The thickness and desired temperature of your steak will determine how long it takes to cook your steaks. Placing a cover on top will help speed up the cooking process.

To check for doneness, use your finger to press on the steak. It should be firm around the edges but still give in the center. You can also use an instant-read thermometer; it should read about 125-130 degrees.

Note: Rare – 120°F , Medium Rare -130°F , Medium – 140°F , Medium Well -150°F , Well done – 160°F

Argentinian Steaks

TBK Tip #3: Skirt steaks are a great choice for soaking up marinade due to its loose structure. Marinating the steak for at least 30 mins in chimichurri will allow the flavor to fully absorb.

Patagonian Potatoes

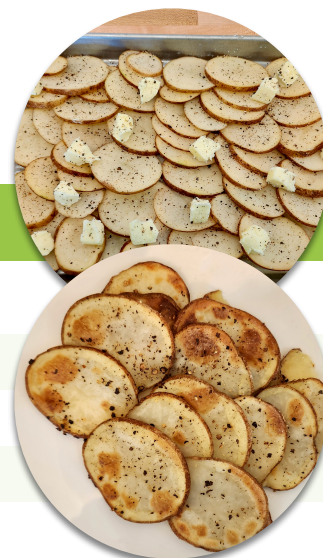

serves 4-6 adults, about a ¼ section per person

24 oz	russet potatoes, sliced ¼" thick
pinch	kosher salt
pinch	whole black peppercorns, ground
4 T	unsalted butter, diced

Garnish

1 T	chimichurri
-----	-------------

Instructions

Preheat oven to 450 degrees.

Thinly slice russet potatoes, about ¼" thick. Stack potatoes into a single, overlapping layer. There should be several rows going across the bottom of the baking sheet. Season with salt and pepper and place diced butter pieces on top. Roast for 16-20 minutes. Once cooked, garnish with chimichurri and enjoy!

Ensalada Criolla (Creole Salad)

serves 4-6 adults

Ingredients

Salad

12 oz (1 ½ heads)	romaine lettuce, chopped
8 oz	roma or plum tomatoes, diced
½	red bell pepper, diced
¼	red onion (medium), julienne

Dressing

¼ C	red wine vinegar
¼ C + 2 T	extra virgin olive oil
1 ½ T	honey
1	garlic clove, grated
2 sprigs	fresh oregano, minced
pinch	kosher salt
pinch	whole black peppercorns, ground

Instructions

In a bowl combine olive oil, red wine vinegar, honey, garlic, oregano, salt and pepper. Whisk vigorously until all ingredients are combined. Set aside.

In a bowl combine, tomatoes, red pepper, onions and romaine lettuce, drizzle with desired amount of dressing right before serving and toss to combine. Enjoy!

TBK Tip: Quickly make dressing by placing ingredients in a jar with a tight-fitting lid. Shake vigorously until all ingredients are combined. Set aside.
